Sri T. R. SHAMANNA.—May I know why the Consultative Committee has not been convened for the last ten months?

Sri K. PUTTASWAMY.—Sir, I think the hon'ble member is correct; it should have been convened; somehow it has not been convened. I have been meeting most of the members individually and collectively and ascertaining their views. Very recently I had met all the members of the Assembly and Council coming from Bangalore City and also the ex-Mayors. I have discussed with them the local needs and also the works to be taken up. I assure the Members that this meeting will be convened as early as possible.

Sri M. S. KRISHNAN.—Are you aware that even small decisions that were taken in the meeting of the Consultative Committee have not been fulfilled and the suggestions of the members of the legislature are not all implemented?

Sri K. PUTTASWAMY.—Sir, that is too general a question ; if the members puts a specific question I shall reply.

Sri G. DUGGAPPA.—Who are all the members of this Committee?

Sri K. PUTTASWAMY.—There are 34 members and I can give their names if the member desires. All the members elected from Bangalore City to the Legislative Assembly and Legislative Council and ex-Mayors and representative of a few important organisations in the City are there.

Mr. SPEAKER.—Question No. 200, Member is not present.

Sri B. P. GANGADHAR.—This is a very important question and I request the Chair to put this question from the Chair.

Sri C. K. RAJAIAH SHETTY.—I request the Chair to put this question.

Sri H. SIDDAVEERAPPA.—I am not interested in car and scooter tyres, but I am interested in tractor tyres. This is a very important question and the Chair should put this question because these tyres have gone to the blackmarket.

Mr. SPEAKER.—I shall put the question if time is available at the end. It is for hon'ble members to finish the questions early so as to leave sufficient time for this question to be taken up. Question No. 201 and 202 lapse as the concerned member are not here now. Next question No. 203.
